The Bureau of Plant Industry-Crop Pest Management Division technical staff, Mr. Jairus Abellar, recently attended a training on public service ethics and accountability at the Boy Scouts of the Philippines, Los Baños, Laguna, February 27–March 1, 2024.

Published by Jairus Abellar | February 27 to March 1, 2024

The training aims to instill the idea of the importance of ethics and accountability as public servants in alignment with the government's advocacy of anti-corruption. This important training helps ensure that all employees are aware of their responsibilities towards the public and the importance of upholding ethical practices while performing their duties. By participating in this training, BPI-CPMD demonstrated their commitment to promoting good governance and ensuring that we operate according to the highest levels of professionalism and responsibility.
