A woman with long black hair and glasses, wearing a black t-shirt and a light-colored skirt, stands in front of a projector screen. She is holding a microphone in her right hand and a pointer in her left hand, pointing towards the screen. The screen displays a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet showing a schedule of activities for a household survey in Isabela, Philippines, from February 19 to March 6, 2023. The spreadsheet includes a list of activities in column A and a grid of dates in columns B through Z. The activities are listed in rows 4 through 27. The grid shows the days of the week for each date, with some cells highlighted in green or yellow, indicating the days when the activities were conducted.
